

Business

Abilities First won't provide certain services any more

By Christian Livermore

Published: 2:00 AM - 07/16/10

POUGHKEEPSIE — Abilities First will no longer be providing some direct outpatient services for occupational, physical and speech therapies, as well as physiatry and the services provided through its brace clinic and equipment team for wheelchair assessments.

It will continue to provide these services through its Early Intervention program and to students attending the Abilities First Preschool and School.

clivermore@th-record.com